

Major San Francisco Newspapers

The San Francisco Chronicle

Letters to the Editor:

Editorial Page Editor: John Diaz

Letters to the Editor should be 200 or fewer words and are subject to editing. Letters must include your name, address and telephone number. We will call to verify authenticity.

Send Submissions to:

Editorial Page Editor, San Francisco Chronicle

901 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

Or Fax to: (415) 543 – 7708

Or send e-mail to: letters@sfchronicle.com

Open Forum:

Submissions should be 650 or fewer words. We will notify you if your Piece is accepted. For guidelines for contributions, see www.sfgate.com/chronicle/submissions.

Send Submissions to: Open Forum, San Francisco Chronicle

901 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

Or send e-mail to: forum@sfchronicle.com

The San Francisco Examiner

We will consider publishing letters containing fewer than 150 words. Please include name, phone number and city of residence.

Send Mail to: Editorial Page Editor, The Examiner

450 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94105

Or send fax to: Fax (415) 359 – 2766

Or send e-mail to: Letters@examiner.com

The San Francisco Independent

We will consider publishing letters containing fewer than 150 words. Please include name, phone number and city of residence.

Send to: Editorial Page Editor Tom Prete, The San Francisco Independent,

450 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94105

Or send e-mail to: Letters@sfindependent.com

The San Francisco Bay Guardian

Letters and Opinions: Opinion columns must be between 600 and 650 words, while Letters should be as brief as possible. We reserve the right to edit Letters and Opinions for length and clarity. Without exception, Letters and Opinions must be typed and signed along with the writer's telephone number for verification purposes.

Letters may be sent via e-mail to: Letters@sfbg.com

Or mailed to the Bay Guardian at 135 Mississippi St., S.F., CA 94107.

Demand for Opinion space is high, and columns are often booked weeks in advance, so please plan ahead if you want an issue that is pegged to an event. Priority is given to those with prominence or expertise in the subject matter.

Opinions should be sent in e-mail form (no attachments) to executive editor Tim Redmond at redmond@sfbg.com.